Spring has arrived at the yarn shop! New vibrant cotton, silk, and linen fibers are popping up all over, and we are shifting focus from warm woolen sweaters to light and airy wraps and scarves. Of course some of us never give up our wool addiction even in the hottest weather, so we have many options such as the new Clara, a DK weight superwash merino from Manos del Uruguay, as well as scrumptious Smooshy from Dream in Color and Frolicking Feet from Done Roving. Trust me when I say these pictures do not even begin to show off the beauty of these yarns!

Spinning and Knitting

We had an exciting event for spinners in March when Sarah Anderson joined us for a 3-day spinning retreat. Each participant - whether experienced or novice - grew tremendously under Sarah's generous tutelage. We hope to bring Sarah back in the future, but we also intend to host a nationally recognized knitter for a weekend of classes in 2016.

Beginner Knitting Class

Learn to Knit

Although we happily teach new knitters daily, our shop has not had a beginners' class in some time. I would like to offer two times for classes: Wednesday morning from 10-11:30 am and Thursday Lunch & Learn over the lunch hour. The participants will make a summer scarf or cowl and will receive all materials and a project bag for $25.00. Please share this information with your friends! We will begin April 29 and 30.

Sock in a Day

We also hope to have some mini-workshops on Saturday mornings, beginning May 2 with "Sock in a Day". Check our website for future topics.

Colored by Kristi

We are very excited that our friend Kristi Smith, who already provides hand-crafted drop spindles for our shop, has been expanding her skills in hand-dyeing. We will be able to offer a very limited number of her brilliant self-striping yarns at Knit Unto Others. You will want a skein!

More Gifts!

Recently I have decided to expand our fiber-related Fair Trade gift items. If you do not have time for that special hand-crafted baby or shower gift, let the women of Nepal or Peru or Malawi make it for you. In the words of our new vendor Dsenyo, "Together we can change the world."
